Visit Legendary PITCAIRN ISLAND

Secluded from mainstream tourism the Pitcairn Islands are a must see for adventurous travellers seeking truly remote horizons. Your visit to these legendary islands will grant you experiences few others have witnessed.

Untouched subtropical island environments, pristine waters, endemic flora, bird and marine life, an unforgettable sea voyage, incredible hospitality, lasting friendships and first-hand insight into the living history and culture of the people of Pitcairn Island - the direct descendants of Pitcairn's first European settlers, the HMAV Bounty mutineers, and their Polynesian consorts.

Travel to Pitcairn from Mangareva on the Claymore II

The Claymore II is Pitcairn's dedicated passenger/supply ship. She is a 'working vessel' not a luxury cruise ship - so amenities and accommodation are bright, clean and practical and the friendly crew provides travellers with all that they need for a safe and comfortable voyage to Pitcairn Island.

The regular passenger service offers visitors a stay of either: 4 or 11 days on Pitcairn and all voyages are timed to connect with Air Tahiti's Tuesday flights between Tahiti and Mangareva. You won't have to apply for a visa if your visit is for less than 14 days.
